Part III: Information Obtained:

Summary:

[REDACTED]

- Detainee identified additional members of the ISI in Mosul.
- Detainee provided physical descriptions of IS security members in Mosul, 'Abu 'Abd-al 'Aziz, Talib, Walid and Abu Hibah.
- Detainee provided a physical description of Rami al-Suri.
- Detainee discussed the changes made by Anas after Anas became Wali of Mosul.

[REDACTED]

- Detainee admitted to being the Deputy Wali of Mosul under Hajji Anmar.

Detainee served as the Deputy Wali of Mosul while Anmar was the Wali. Detainee's role was to assist Anmar in overall ISi operations. Detainee returned to the role of overall Mosul ISi amir after Anas became the Wali one month prior to Detainee's capture.

Detainee met Abu Ibrahim the general military amir of Mosul two months ago. Detainee does not remember where Detainee met Abu Ibrahim but Detainee was introduced to Abu Ibrahim through Abu Salim [REDACTED]. Detainee has seen Abu Ibrahim several times with members of ISi military members in the Suq al-Ma'ash and Hay al-Sumar.

Jasim, AKA Abu Ahmad was a military amir prior to Abu Salim's capture. Abu Ahmad was assigned the role of east and west side security amir under Abu Minar after Abu Salim was captured.

Abu Ahmad, AKA Abu Hammam is a military member. [REDACTED]

Rami al-Suri is an ISi member who works outside of Mosul. [REDACTED] Detainee last saw Rami two months ago in Hay al-Sumar walking with Abu Khalud an ISi military member in Mosul. Detainee heard that Abu Khalud and Rami are brothers. Both are Syrian and have been in Iraq since the fall of the regime. Rami speaks with a Syrian dialect and Abu Khalud speaks with a Mosuli accent.

Abu Mahmud, AKA 'Ali Shurti was the amir of the North until Abu Anas took over as Wali. Anas took charge as the Wali of both Mosul and the north. Abu Mahmud was moved to Mosul to another ISi position. Anas made the changes because there were no operations in the north and the positions in the north were no longer needed. Abu Mahir was the former administration amir in the north and took a position in Administration in Mosul. The military group on the east side of Mosul was broken into north and south with Abu Muqdad assigned as the amir of the north and 'Umar assigned as the amir of the south. Abu Ibrahim became the overall military amir and deputy Wali.

Abu Minar the ISi security amir in Mosul used the kunya Abu Khalid prior to Abu Salim's arrest. Abu Hibah was known as Abu Ayah prior to Abu Salim's arrest.
