Based on the wali's directive regarding Abu Sufyan Kafifah's complaint against the Hisbah Center, the brothers, Humam al-'Asiri and Mus'ab al-Idlibi were assigned to study the case and submit the outcome.

Subject - Complaint against Abu Siraj al-Filistini

Description of the case:

Muhammad Hamdan claimed that Abu Siraj was unjust to him, for he discriminated between him and a Tunisian brother. He imprisoned him and left the Tunisian brother free after a fight occurred between them. He was imprisoned as a common Muslim.

Testimonials of the parties to the case:

- Testimonials of brother Abu Sufyan Kafifah:

Kunya	Abu Sufyan Kafifah	Date of bay'ah	March 2013
Age	20	Work during the fight with the Awakenings	[blank]
Type of work	[blank]	Have you joined any organization?	No
Place of work	Al-Battar Brigade	Contact no.	[blank]
Previous work before the [Islamic] State	A student	Works assigned to him by the Islamic State	The army / Raqqah / The Diwan of Soldiery

The testimony can be summarized as follows:

First: I was hit in the Hisbah Office by the Tunisian brother and the Libyan brother while the brothers were watching.

Second: Abul-Layth pushed me and I told him, "Fear Allah. You can't do anything to them because they are affiliated with Islamic State and you come to me to push me!" He got mad because of me saying that, and he grabbed the whip to lash me but I prevented him. Then he pushed me with the whip inside the jail.

Third: He put me in the jail under the pretext of my screaming and hitting, but he let the two brothers (the Tunisian and the Libyan) free? Is it because he doesn't know that I'm affiliated with the {Islamic} State? Is this his way of discriminating between State brothers and Common Muslims? He let State brothers free and imprisoned common Muslims.
