A Complaint

I, Jasim Muhammad al-‘Ali al-Sayyid, would like to inform you that I own the house, which is registered in the real estate paperwork in the name of the heirs of Abdullah bin Salih with number 1365 in the estate. I bought the land from him since 1982 and built it. Here I have lived in the house since that date, and I have land in al-‘Asharah in al-Suwaidan. I went with the family to cultivate the land as usual, and we came back in the evening to be surprised by the presence of a family of brothers in the house. We only found the sisters, so I told them, “Open the door, so that we can reason with you, my daughter. How did you get in and why? This house is ours and all our things are inside.” One of the sisters said from behind the door, “I carry a pistol, and anyone who approaches the door I shoot at him.” We went to the police in al-‘Asharah and they said, “Go to the real estate, we do not solve the problem.” We went to the judge’s office and they told us, “Go to the complaints office and file a complaint.” I am now residing in my son’s house, and I hope you will respond quickly.

The request: I ask you to return the house and hold them accountable for any shortage of household items. And may God reward you the best.
