Text of the complaint

I swear by God, the Almighty on my testimony.

I went to ask for a woman's hand in marriage from my uncle's family. My uncle said to me, "We don't have a woman for you." Then my uncle contacted my father and told him, "I gave my daughter to a Turkman person." Then my brother wanted to go to my uncle's house to fight with him but we prevented him. Then my uncle contacted his son and said to him, "Your uncle's family attacked me." Then his son brought Islamic State people with cars belonging to the special [forces maybe] and they started shooting at the house. Then they arrested me for 6 days and my brother for 7 days. By then, the problem between us and my uncle's family ended. [end of page 1]

Note: The complaint will not be taken into consideration if the complainant does not mention his information.

(Appendix)

A year after that, we had a funeral and my brother was serving coffee. Then, when he served the coffee to my uncle, my uncle said: I do not deserve this akal on my head and I do not deserve to be the son of the Islamic State if I do not eliminate your brother.
