Camps acceptance requirements

Religious greeting...

Mujahid brother,

Religious greeting...

The following is a set of requirements and regulations we ask you to follow in order to obtain the best results at our camps:

- 1. You have to be healthy and free of any decease that can impede your training.
- 2. Fill out all New Recruits forms with pertinent information prior to joining camp.
- 3. Abide by the specified training period of (.....days). (Basic training course is two full months).
- 4. During basic training you are not allowed to leave camp under any excuse (to call, to shop...etc.) unless it is an extreme case decided by management.
- 5. Abide by the rules of the camp (religious, military, administrative) without fail.
- 6. Abide with the regulations at every level. Listen to and obey what could be a pleasant or unpleasant order unless it is an order to sin.
- 7. Leave all your valuables upon arrival at the guest house (passport, personal identification, money...etc.)
- 8. Leave all forbidden items (tape recorder, radio, photo or video camera)
- 9. Do not buy or prepare food or drink while at the camp.
- 10. Be studious and show willingness to learn.
- 11. Failure to abide by the camps' rules and schedule will have you scolded or discharged.
- 12. The administration has the right to discharge you from training for any reason.
- 13. The guesthouse management or the camp is not obligated to pay any monies for travel or transportation.

Note: Bringing training requirements (Sports shoe, military uniform, pens and notebooks) needs to be considered.

Pledge

I the undersigned......declare my acceptance of the aforementioned rules and regulations; may God help me to abide by it.

I also declare that I am willing to be responsible for not obeying any rule and accordance to the camp's regulation. God is my witness.

Notice: your signature denotes your acceptance of all the mentioned rules and regulations and obligates you to follow it or suffer the consequences. God be with you.
