The man named Abu Abass at the desert camp is an Iraqi man that lives in the camp. Detainee insisted the Abu Abass that accompanies Jar Allah is a Saudi Arabian male.

[REDACTED]

Detainee insisted the best place to locate Abu Arab was the Ma'ash Market location. Any fighter in ISI was allowed to send Abu Qaswarah or any high level leader a message. The fighter's Amir or leaders do not need to be informed of the fighter's communication. The fighter only needs to meet Abu Arab in the Ma'ash Market and give him the note to be delivered.

[REDACTED]

Detainee reiterated Abu Qaswarah's camp was located in a westerly direction outside of Mosul. Detainee remembers the sun being in his face during the trip to the camp. Detainee concludes the camp is located to the west of the city. Detainee cautioned if the camp was located south west of the city,

[REDACTED]

Detainee identified Abu Bushra as the ISI Security Amir during Abu 'Abdallah al Shami. Detainee met Abu Bushra on one occasion. Detainee later heard Abu Bushra had been transferred outside of Mosul during August 2007. Detainee spent approximately one hour with Abu Bushra. Detainee reminded [REDACTED] Detainee had previously identified Abu Bushra's picture.
