And they received their salaries as they should, so the only thing I would say, over and over again, is God suffices us, and He is the best One against every oppressor and against everyone who covers up the oppression of the oppressors.

By God, whoever does not care about Muslims is not one of them. Isn't this how the Prophet of mercy Muhammad, may God's peace and prayers be upon him, taught us? Where is the mercy? Where are the good morals and where is humility? And where are we from Al-Faruq 'Umar, may God be pleased with him, who judged and did justice? And who said, "If a sheep on the Euphrates stumbled, God would hold me accountable for it on the Day of Resurrection." It is just a sheep, let alone people who are oppressed.

My honorable brother: I apologize for the lengthy letter, but in order to be aware and everything will be clear to you, my grievance is now in your hands. By God, take care of the oppressed ones, and I ask you by God that you do not let us down.

May God grant you victory, direct your steps, support you with soldiers from Himself, conquer lands for our Islamic State from the easts and wests of the earth, and make the banner of monotheism flutter in Damascus, Baghdad and the rest of the countries.

Oh God, Amen, He is the Guardian and capable of it.

And peace be upon you, God's mercy and His blessings.
