And patrols came to take me, and they were about 6 vans. They said we will peel your skin off your bone. And there was a quarrel in the street between the brothers. One of them said we will take them with us and the other says we will take them with us. Then, they took me to the Public Police. Then Abu ‘Abbas and Abu Muhammad al-Shami came and took me to the Hisbah, and they started saying things to me like “stripping your skin from your bone.” There, in the Hisbah, the brother Abu Bara al-Urduni and Abu ‘Umar al-Ansari came and said, “We did not come here to treat people like this.”

Then they took us to the central prison. Abu Muhammad al-Shami used to come every now and then and say, “Where is the al-Mansour gang?” When I was referred to the Shari’ah judge, I told him, “I have witnesses who testify that he was the one who hit me in the first place.” But the Shari’ah judge told me, “Shut up,” and they lashed me with 70 lashes.

My brother, the wali, by God, and God willing, I am honest. I love the Islamic State and my evidence is this complaint. I do not want people to speak ill of the State, but we ask God for guidance. There are individual errors and, God willing, they will be overcome. Thank you very much.
