In the name of Allah, the Gracious, the Merciful

To The honorable brother, the official of the wali's office, may God help him and straighten his opinion

Peace be upon you and God's mercy and His blessings.

We ask God to bless you wherever you are, guide you and support you in achieving your duties. As for what follows:

Regarding the complaint filed by the person named [REDACTED]:

We inform you that the brothers in the women's division were on patrol, and one of the brothers saw 3 women in violation, so he reprimanded them and ordered them to board the bus, but they refused to board. So the brother called out to the sisters so that they would force the violating women to board the bus. Then a young man came and caught the violating women among the sisters and said, "Go home," with a loud voice and without asking anyone, as if he did not see anyone in front of him. The brother Abul-Harith dragged him from among the sisters to the back and asked him, "What do you want? Why do you pull out the women?" Then the man pushed brother Abul-Harith and did not respond to the questions. Abul-Harith tried to hold him so that the sisters could take the women to the bus. The young man slipped away in stubbornness and screaming. So brother Abu Muhammad al-Shami helped Abul-Harith and they sat the man on the ground until the women got up. Then the shop owners gathered around the sisters and women. Brother Abul-Bara fired two shots in the air, then the brothers tried to take the young man into the bus, but he was stubborn, so he was taken by force. And when he went up, he started shouting and uttering bad words at the brothers in front of the women, so they beat him until he was silent, knowing that he was the one who forced them to do so, as he objected to an official patrol and shouted and gathered people around the brothers and sisters, trying to insult one of the official authorities of the [Islamic] State.
