At the hour [blank] on Tuesday, 22/6/1438 corresponding to 21/March/2017, we, the official of the Office of Complaints at the al-Khayr Center, came before us. Their positions in the complaint are:

We inform you that I, [redacted], own the property that belonged to my father, [redacted]. The property was an agriculture land and I built the house on it. Then I let my son, Faysal, live in it. When Faysal traveled, I let my son, Ahmad, live in it, since a year and 2 months ago. Then the Real Estate [center] came and gave us orders to vacate the house, knowing that there is no alternative to live in. I'm married to 2 women and I built the house in 1997. The carpenter who built the house is available and his testimony is available. I built the house when my son was serving mandatory military.

The request: I ask you to stop the evacuation order and leave my son's family in the house.
