A Claim Classification

Based on the complainant's statement mentioned previously and after considering his evidence, the type of lawsuit was determined as: grievances.

The subject matter of the lawsuit shall be determined as: dismantling the confiscation of a house.

The case is considered (ordinary / urgent / rejected) for the following reasons:

Because the complainant does not have a role in the claim. The wife admitted that the owner of the house (her husband) wanted to return from Damascus. He may come and file a claim. And God is the granter of success.
