Complainant Interrogation Report

At: 11:32 on the day: Tuesday on 5/5/1436 corresponding to 24/February/2015

Came before us, we: Abu 'Uthman (The judge/ The Prosecutor/investigator)

In the: Islamic Court of al-Mayadin, the complainant: [REDACTED] filing a complaint on: The Diwan of Real Estate (al-Basirah).

And demanding: Stopping a house seizure.

And his proof: a contract and witnesses.

His testimony is as follows:

I am the wife of [REDACTED], who is now in Saudi Arabia and working there. Real estate [officials] came and seized the house in which I live with my children on the accusation that my husband is an apostate. The house is registered in my name, as I had bought it from my husband since 17/January/2010 in exchange for sheep and gold that I owned. I bought the house from him due to a dispute between us when he wanted to marry another woman. I own the house and I have witnesses to that, so I come to the Islamic court to prove my ownership of the house and to release it, and for that I provide my fingerprint.
