I, [redacted], would like to inform you that I own the property number [redacted], on which I built a house. Knowing that I'm married to 3 women. This house, which got seized belongs to me and her [probably one of his wives], and when I told him that this house belongs to me, he said to me, "Go live with one of your other wives." All my children live with me. The neighbors testified that this house belongs to my son, when in fact my son doesn't own the house. He owns 2 houses in Deir ez-Zour, and I don't know anything about them. Before you, attached, is paperwork and evidence. We don't have any other place to live in. We even use the kitchen as a bedroom. I request that you reconsider this matter. The request: I request to stop the seizure of the house, and may God reward you the best.
