At the hour [blank] on Thursday, 24/6/1438 corresponding to 23/March/2017, we, the official of the Office of Complaints at the al-Khayr Center, came before us. Their positions in the complaint are:

I, [redacted], would like to inform you that I own the property number [redacted], on which I built a house. I have lived in this house for three years, as I was previously one of the heirs in our father's house. My mother lives with me and she helped build this house. Knowing that, I used to work in Kuwait for 15 years as an ordinary labor, and this house is from my hard work and my mother's participation with me. As for my brother [redacted] he used to work in the al-Furat Oil Company and live in the residential city. He lived with us in the house for about a month. My mother and I live in this house and we have nothing but this house, and I have witnesses who are with me.

The request: I ask you to stop the eviction order, and may God reward you the best.
