I, [redacted], would like to inform you that I bought an apartment from the person named [redacted], which belongs, according to the real estate paperwork to [redacted]. I rented the house to brother Abu Suleiman al-Maghribi and came to the house to collect the rent, but was surprised by the presence of brother Abu Isma'il. He told me the house had been given to him by real estate. I told him that this house is mine and you do not have the right to live in it. He said to me, "Go and get an order to evict it, and I will leave." I went to the real estate and they said, "Go to the public prosecutor," and they sent me to the complaint's office. And I present to you, hoping for fairness. I am ready to provide all the evidence.

The request: I ask you to return my house to me, and may God reward you the best.
