

In the name of Allah, the Gracious, the Merciful
To: The Mujahidin Affairs' Office
Subject: Order Disobedience

All praise is due to God, and prayers and peace be upon our Prophet Muhammad, his family and his companions.

As for what follows:

We would like to inform you about brother Hasan Hussein Ali, with a kunyah Abul-Walid and works in the Shari'ah Court of Wilayat Ninawa.

Whenever we assign something to brother Abul-Walid, he comes up with an excuse, and when we investigate this excuse, we discover that he is not true. When we were sent to al-Shirqat for a battle, he didn't join us and came up with an excuse. Then, when we investigated this excuse, we discovered that he is not true. Days later, we were assigned to go support the brothers in the valley, but he found an excuse and when we investigated this excuse, we discovered that he is not true. We asked him to take the place of his brothers in al-Shirqat and we fixed a day to go but he missed it. In another time he found excuse to not to go to Hamam al-'Alil and we accepted that. A few days ago, we assigned him to go replace his brothers in al-Zab. He said he'll come on time, but he didn't. Then the following day, he came and said sent me to the Mujahidin Affairs' Office because I will not go [in assignments], because if I go my wife will leave me and my children. He never went to battle fronts or to support his brothers, not even once since the conquest [of Mosul].

We ask God to grant us and you success
And may God reward you the best
