Text of the complaint

I was going to a battle and I gave my pistol to my father. On his way home, he was stopped by the security and the pistol was confiscated from him. I went to him [the security member] and asked him to give me back the two pistols. He said, “Go to the court.” I went to the court and they said to me, “We don’t have pistols.” I went to him and said to him, “There are no pistols in the court.” He said to me, “Go away or I’ll through you in jail.” Each time I go to him, he says the same thing.

Note: The complaint will not be taken into consideration if the complainant does not mention his information.
