[The second page is a light green sticky note with a handwritten sentence that reads:]

It should be returned to Abu 'Umar al-Sab'awi

[The third page is the complaint form but the Arabic language used in it was so poor so it was rewritten in more readable way in the fourth page.]

Text of the complaint

I swear to God on what I say. I own a butcher's shop. Ali Khalaf came and bought meat from me worth 25 thousand and said [he would pay me] within one month. Then he came and asked me for 500 thousand, but I told him that I don't have this amount, so he took a sheep worth 275 thousand from me [and said he would pay me within] one month. Then I couldn't find him, but I looked for him and found him. I filed a complaint with the Islamic police.

Note: The complaint will not be taken into consideration if the complainant does not mention his information.

[The following sentence on the bottom of the page reads:]
The Official in Charge of The Mujahidin Affairs' Office

(Appendix)

Then the Islamic police summoned him and he gave me 350 thousand and left 150 thousand. After that, I could not find his place. I searched for him again and found him. I told him that you owe me 150 thousand, but he denied the amount and said, "I do not owe you anything."

(Summary of the complaint)

The owner of a butcher's shop gave 25 thousand dinars, then gave him a sheep worth of 275 thousand dinars, bringing the total amount to 300 thousand dinars.

After the complaint, he took 350 thousand dinars from him.

Ask the complainant, Muhannad, "How much did Khalaf Ali give?"
