Text of the complaint

All praise is due to God.

Three months ago my pistol, type Glock and [serial number] 100, was taken from me. Then I was sent as a support to the Wilayat North Baghdad. I stayed for a month there and then I was sent to Mosul. I spent a 3-day leave at my house before I was sent to Wilayat Fallujah. I was injured in Fallujah and because of my injury I was sent to the sector. Upon my return, I requested my pistol back from the brother, the emir of the sector, but he didn’t give it back. I went to brother ‘Abbas al-‘Askari for the same purpose and he said, “God willing.” Knowing that I’m among the veteran brothers who...[end of the page] who received (20) papers [$2,000]. It is known that the veteran brother takes his pistol with him wherever he gets transferred. Knowing that I got transferred inside the wilayah. Then, I went to the Following Up [committee] to demand the pistol and they sent me to the Mujahidin Affairs' Office. Thus, please inform and address the emir of the sector to give back the pistol. And may God reward you the best.
