Text of the complaint

Yesterday morning, at 8:30, the person named Rayan sent a group of the Islamic State members to my house. They stormed into the house and beat my brother Muhammad and my brother Yasir. One of them beat my brother Muhammad with the pistol handle. They threatened to kill me, but I fled the house, because of problems that happened between Abu Rayan's kids. They are quarrelsome kids and they harm the residents of the neighborhood with their actions. They [IS members] accused me and my family members of apostasy and that they will confiscate the house we live in. Knowing that this is the second attack on my house. In the first attack, no one opened the door for them, and when they left, they threatened to execute me next time they come. My brothers didn't file a complaint out of fear.

Note: The complaint will not be taken into consideration if the complainant does not mention his information.
