Text of the complaint

All praise is due to God, and after swearing the oath:

Yesterday, at 6:30 PM, the person named Abu Darr came to me and said that he found my cell phone which I lost 10 days ago. He asked me for my original documentations, house deed and store deed because he accused me of trying to travel. He said to me, "I will take you to the Hisbah and they will stone you because you have a girl photo in your mobile phone, and I came to bargain." He said to me, "Write me a pledge that you will give me your wife bride price and all her gold [jewelries]." The way he spoke with me was weird. He said to me [end of the page] that he is a Shari'ah judge. So I gave him my original documentations (5 documents and resident card). He said to me that he'll return them back to me. Then he said, "Why don't you buy gold for your wife." I said to him, "I don't have money." He said to me, "Take money from your father. He is a rich man." He did not return my IDs to me and I don't know what this man wants from me. He also said to me, "Why don't you spend on your wife? And where is the amount of $19,000 which your father has as price of the car he sold?"
