Text of the grievance

All praise is due to God.

Yesterday evening, I talked to my emir, Abu Ibrahim, regarding the insufficient food, especially bread at the time of Suhur [the meal Muslim eat very early in the morning before fasting]. He said, "I did not have Suhur, so what happens if you do not?" And he said to me, "Do not raise your voice." I said to him, "I did not raise my voice, but I demand my right." And he said to me, "Do not raise your voice above the voice of the Prophet." Then he flogged me strongly and not Shari'ah way, as he was raising his hand high and then hit me hard, with the whip on my back...[end of the page]
