Text of the complaint

All praise is due to God.

My name is Umm 'Umar, I'm an immigrant from Indonesia. This is a report about bad treatment that happened to my mother, Umm Habib al-Indunisiyyah, when we were at the sisters' guesthouse in Mosul. The incident happened in the morning, at 7 AM, on October 13, 2015. That morning, Umm Habib was cleaning the house. Then a man named Abu Hashim al-Yamani came close to my mother, Umm Habib. Knowing that he is a dentist. He asked her, "Do you need eggs for breakfast?" Umm Habib said, "Yes."

Note: The complaint will not be taken into consideration if the complainant does not mention his information

Then the man went back to the other guesthouse for men.
After a while, he came again and knocked the door. Umm Habib opened the door for him. He gave her the eggs and some bread. Knowing that that wasn't part of his work. He asked my mother about her teeth problem. He introduced himself, previously as a dentist, and my mother thought that he was a good dentist, so maybe he could give her a proper medicine for her teeth. Knowing that there's a cavity in one of her teeth. Then Abu Hashim asked Umm Habib (my mother) to remove the niqab [face cover] so he could examine her teeth. Knowing that he was standing outside the front door. Then he asked her to enter the house to examine her better. My mother (Umm Habib) gave him permission to enter the house. Then he entered the house and examined her teeth. Then, he put his hands on her shoulders and asked her, "Are you married?" My mother (Umm Habib) answered: "Yes!" He asked her, "Where is your husband?" She replied, "In the land of disbelief!" Then she said to him with anger, "Leave the house." But he didn't leave. He asked her, "Did you need anything?" She replied, "No. Leave, I don't need anything." Then he left, and all praise is due to God.

And may God reward you the best.
