Text of the complaint

All praise to God. After swearing the oath.

On last Thursday, 3 / Dhul-Hijjah / 1436 [corresponding to 16 September 2015], at 2 PM, I went to al-Salam hospital to ask about my uncle, who lost his personal pistol at the hospital's reception. When I asked the person named Harith, who works at the reception, he said to me, "Your uncle is a careless man." Then when I said to him that he's not like that, he said to me, "Shut up or I'll put the shoe in your mouth and hit your head with it, O dog." I didn't respond and left the place. Abu Hasan silenced him and they did not approve of his action. A brother works at the hospital said to me, "He took... [end of the page]."

Note: The complaint will not be taken into consideration if the complainant does not mention his information.

The matter has been investigated and it has become clear that brother Harith swears that he didn't say that. That is a false claim.

Text of testimony: All praise to God. After swearing the oath.

I was with the person named [redacted], who is a relative of mine, and we went to the al-Salam hospital to ask about his uncle, the person named [redacted] who lost his pistol at the hospital's reception. The person named Harith said [end of the page] to the person named [redacted] "Your uncle is a careless man." [redacted] replied, "My uncle is not careless. He was looking for his missing pistol." Then the person named Harith said to him, "You are careless too. Shut up or else I will put the shoe in your mouth and I'll step on your head, O dog." Then I asked the person named Harith, "Why are you calling him (dog)?" Then the person named Abu Muhammad, who works at the hospital with brother Abu Hasan, said, "You can't address him by (dog)." Then we left the place and went.

How did you know about this? I was present.
