All praise is due to Allah, and prayers and peace be upon the Messenger of Allah, his family, his companions and those who follow him.

Subject / Complaint

I, the Muslim, [REDACTED]. I live in al-'Ubur Neighborhood. Brother Mujahid with the kunyah Harith raided my house while I was away. Two men, among the common Muslims, accompanied him. Their names are [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. They came because of a financial case despite the fact that the brother [that came with them] was from the security [department], who has nothing to do with the debt cases. He violated my family and children by screaming and threatening them. He stood by the door and let the two men enter the house and search the house rooms without someone from the family accompanying them. Brother Mujahid claimed that he has orders to arrest the women and children, but when I arrived, it appeared that he didn't have such orders. On that, brother Abu 'Umar from the Islamic Police and brother Abu Faisal from the Armored Brigade can testify. On the following day, a person among the common Muslims filed a complaint at the Complaints Center of al-'Ubur, stating that brother Mujahid raided the house without an order from his emir or from a judge.

And may God reward you the best.

Subject / Complaint

I, the Muslim, Sa'id Muhammad Nahir with the kunyah of Abu Faisal. I am one of the fighters of the Armored Brigade. I live in al-'Ubur Neighborhood. A brother came to me and told me that a man from the security [department] was at the doorstep of a house and threatening to arrest women and children [of the house]. So I went and asked him not to arrest them until I bring the man of the house, [REDACTED], who is a relative of mine. I gave him my ID but he insisted to take all the IDs of the family members, otherwise, he threatened to bring a mini bus and arrest women and children. I gave him two IDs, then I went to bring my relative, [REDACTED] and went to the court in al-Faruq street. From there, we headed towards the Islamic Police and had members of the Islamic Police accompany us to search for brother Mujahid, who works at the security checkpoint of the electric station of al-Fath al-Mubin. Then when brother Abu 'Umar asked him where did he get the orders from, he said, "I received an insider radio call to arrest [REDACTED] So I asked him while Abu 'Umar was there, "How could you arrest women and children? And where did you get the orders from?" He said and insisted that he had the same orders of the Islamic Police, but I suspected his claims. Then after a short while, one of the common Muslims who entered the house came to the al-'Ubur complaint office and told Abu 'Umar, the Shari'ah official of the Islamic Police that Mujahid found them on the street and he did what he improvised and did what he did without any orders.
