Text of the complaint

All praise to God, and after swearing the oath:

Two days ago, I met the person named Ali Hussein 'Alwan, who is a member of the Islamic State and knew me previously, as we were imprisoned together in 2005 by the apostate government. He is originally from Samara city, and I'm from Al-Hawish town, which is near Samara city. He met me at Sadah and Ba'wizah and violated me with words for no reason. I want to know why did he do that and why did he claim that I was originally from the al-Thawrah city in Baghdad that has a bad reputation. I want justice and I want him to sign a pledge to not to attack me anymore.

Note: The complaint will not be taken into consideration if the complainant does not mention his information.
