(Appendix)

And he was thrown at the street without any compensation and aid. Knowing that several grievances have been submitted for him, some of these grievances were submitted through the brothers in the Disabled Committee. The Committee's opinion was that he should be transferred to the Departed Office and there wasn't any answer regarding his case. Thus, please consider the case of the brother, and the matter belongs to you. May Allah reward you the best.

For your information, he would like to return to work as a soldier in the ranks of the Islamic State and hoped that he wouldn't stop working.

And may Allah reward you the best.
