Subject/ A complaint

I am the Muslim, Sa'id Muhammad Nahir, with the kunyah of Abu Faysal. I'm one of the fighters of the Armored Brigade in al-'Ubur neighborhood. One of the brothers came to me to tell me that a man works for the Security was at the door, threatening to arrest women and children unless I vouch for them and promise to bring the owner of the house, [REDACTED], who is one of my relatives. Despite giving his identification card, he insisted on having the identification cards of the entire family or else, he would bring a Starex minibus and arrest all women and children. Hence, I gave him 2 identification cards. Then he left and I went to bring my relative, [REDACTED] and took him to the court in al-Fariq street. Then we went to the Islamic Police, who accompanied us to look for brother Mujahid, who works at the Security of the Electric Station checkpoint of al-Fath al-Mubin. Then when brother Abu 'Umar asked him where did he get [the arrest] orders from, he said that he received radio orders from the inside to arrest [REDACTED]. So, I said to him, while Abu 'Umar was present, "How could you arrest women and children? And who gave you the permission to do so?" He said and insisted that he has orders from the Islamic Police. However, I had my suspicious about his claims. Then after a short time, a man from common Muslims, who entered the house, came to tell Abu 'Umar, the Shari'ah official of the Islamic Police of the al-'Ubur Complaints Office, that Mujahid found them on the road and that he improvised and without any orders, doing what he did based on his own judgment.
