Text of the complaint

All praise is due to Allah, and after swearing the oath:

We, the wives of the person named [redacted], who is a brother work in Dabiq Army and his kunyah is Abu Mariam. On 28/Shawwal/1436 [13 August 2015], at 8:30 AM, an Islamic State force, consisting of 6 individuals, four of them were masked, raided [our house]. They detained our husband, Hussein, and there treated us very badly. They stormed into the house from the roof and we weren't even able to cover ourselves with the Shari'ah cloths. They threatened [end of the page] to shoot us. One of them pushed me ([redacted]) and they accused us of lying. They messed up the house furniture and they accused our husband of theft. Later, one of his friends told us that the force that raided our house was the following up group. Hence, please we hope to take our right from those who violated the sanctity of the house, did not respect the women of the household, and treated us without the morals of Islam.

And may God reward you the best.

Note: The complaint will not be taken into consideration if the complainant does not mention his information.
