

[This is a fragment of a bigger document with an unknown number of pages]

Four years after the death of my husband, relatives got tired of providing aid, and at night, they expelled me and my children from their annex and said they needed that part of the house. We went out at night, not knowing what to do. Then I went to my family in their rented house as well, but the owners of the house were not satisfied with housing more than one family.

So, I borrowed and rented a house for 3 months, at a value of 15,000 per month, and paid it in advance.

I apologize for the lengthy statement, but I am deprived of means of subsistence and there is no way for me and my children except from God who has granted you the authority. I know that attention is paid to the matter of widows and divorced women in our society and to establish institutes to qualify them to work, such as sewing and other handicrafts, so that they will not be dependent on anyone and be patient with what God has decreed for them. Perhaps by the prayers of one of them, God will guide the footsteps of the mujahidin, help the Muslims, and end our ordeal.

In conclusion, I hope you pay attention to us, and God is sufficient for us, Most Excellent is He in whom we trust.
